MERRY CHRISTMAS

THE STORY OF "SILENT NIGHT"

Submitted by Dr. Frank Weege, 3458 Main St., Lemon Grove as gleaned from a professional pamphlet.

Heavy snow was still falling on that Christmas Eve in the little village of Oberdorf, high up in the valley of Salzach. For twenty-four hours it had snowed, and the roofs and streets were covered deep with the freshly fallen whiteness.

The young minister of the village church looked out at the darkening sky. "A silent blank of snow is glorious for Christmas Eve," he remarked. "But I fear it will be hard for many members to attend our midnight service."

As he spoke, the figure of Franz Gruber, the village school master, merged from out the falling whiteness and entered the parsonage. "Father Josef, Father Josef," he cried as he encountered the young minister. "It is indeed bad news that I bring to you. I have just come from the church, and the organ is broken. We must wait for the arrival of the organmaker from our neighboring village, and I fear that our service tonight must be carried on without the happy Christmas songs of the children."

The minister smiled at the school master. "Have no fear, Franz," he replied. "We shall not be disappointed."

"But we must have music, father," Franz Gruber insisted. "On Christmas Eve one must have music."

"We will have music," the minister declared resolutely. "Even though the organ is broken, the children you have taught can sing some of the old Christmas songs they know so well."

Franz Gruber shook his head. "I fear their youthful voices cannot sing them without the aid of the organ."

A smile spread over the young minister's face. "Then we shall sing a new song," he declared. "Just this afternoon as I watched the darkening sky and the softly falling snowflakes, these words came to me."

Drawing the schoolmaster into his study, the young minister placed before him the words of that joyous Christmas carol that will never die:

Stille Nacht, heilige Nacht,
Alles schlief, einsam wacht,
Nur das traute hochheilige Paar
Holder Knabe im lockigen Haar,
Schlaf in himmlischer Ruh,
Schlaf in himmlischer Ruh.

"Father Josef," said the school master as he read the poem, "thy words sing themselves. Bars of music seem to float from heaven to fit themselves perfectly about."

Howard Chernoff KFMB-TV G. M. to Address Kiwanians

Howard Chernoff, National Peabody Award winner and general manager of KFMB-TV will be guest speaker December 31 at the Lemon Grove Kiwanis Club. Chernoff, former general manager of the San Diego Daily Journal, began his career in newspaper work and went into radio in 1930. He was general manager of the West Virginia Network — a chain of four stations. As war correspondent in Europe during World War 2 he made regular broadcasts from American Stations in Europe. He received the Peabody Award in 1943 for his outstanding work in public service in the operation of the West Virginia Network.

He has been cited twice by Varsity Magazine for use of radio to promote community responsibility.

Mrs. Chernoff is also well known in radio circles. She achieved considerable fame as conductor of women's programs in West Virginia.

Chernoff will describe in his Kiwanis talk some of the problems faced in the operation of a T. V. station. All Kiwanians are invited to get the T. V. story straight from the horse's mouth.

MIL'S MUSINGS

We have a reader! Mrs. W. Altrite wrote in to ask us if we could explain the large sign adjacent to Massachusetts St., just south of the San Miguel intersection. She reports that the sign has very large, painted, white letters at the top of the sign saying, "EGGS FOR SALE." Immediately below are two words roughly chalked in that say, "NO EGGS." Queries Mrs. Altrite, "Why is the sign there at all?" For two years that she has seen the sign, she says, it has never changed.

For several months Steve Westover, lumberman, has owed Max Goodwin, publisher, a drink from a lost wager. Although Steve had very intention of paying, the right opportunity just never came. Finally Max was successful in his reminders and Steve agreed to buy. Arm and arm they strolled to the local pub only to find, much to their collective chagrin, that it was closed for an election. Evidently the right opportunity that Steve was waiting for was election day.

A new record for line waiting was set last week one morning when we noticed each of those three windows at our bank had lines extending 4 deep on the sidewalk outside.

SLACK SIGNS SIGHTED: In another restaurant — "If you would rather put cigarette ashes in coffee cups, we'll serve coffee in the ashtrays."

What is causing the speedup of all a sudden in county services to this neglected area? Latest word is that starting the first of the year, special police protection will be provided for the merchants so desiring — and willing to pay a special fee.

Lemon Grove's endeavor to surpass all communities in the way of Christmas decorations, although successful, can be twice as good next year. This can be done by decorating two trees instead of one as has been suggested by several of the people around town. These two trees would be the twins that

Christmas Program Enjoyable At Vista La Mesa

The annual Christmas dinner program of the Lemon Grove District Teachers Association was held Tuesday, December 16, in the cafeteria of the Vista La Mesa School. Approximately 125 members and their guests enjoyed a delicious baked ham dinner prepared by the ladies of the school cafeteria staff under the direction of Mrs. Ruth Pfister. Tables were colorfully decorated with blue paper with candles and clusters of angels and clouds. These were made by members of Miss Fay Cowden's class of the Golden Avenue School. Mrs. Helen Thompson and Mrs. Ellen Berdel took charge of decorating the tables and cafeteria.

Hal Brogan, chairman of the program and the club's vice president, welcomed all guests which included secretaries, gardeners, custodians, school nurses, members of the board of trustees, Helix high musicians, and the guest speaker, Mrs. Frank Les Tina of Point Loma.

Robert Russell, music director of Helix High School, introduced members of the school quartet. These boys sang three numbers and a member of the group entertained the diners with two accordion numbers.

Mrs. Les Tina, popular speaker in and around San Diego, told of her early experience in European schools. She then regaled the audience with a humorous account of her experiences in the Waco during the war.

The next meeting of the association will be a business meeting on January 22.

The Voice Needed Most

The increased attention being given to new translations of the Bible by Protestant and Catholic alike has caused the American Bible Society to sponsor again between Thanksgiving and Christmas a worldwide reading of the greatest passages of the Bible.
It is expected that these 29 selections will be read, one a day, by millions of people in not less than 38 countries. The President of the United States is honorary chairman of a committee of distinguished laymen supporting the movement. In his endorsement of the plan the President has said:
"In these troubled times, the truths which the Bible teaches are of greater and greater importance to mankind. They are the only firmer answer to the forces of organized hate which now threaten the civilized world."
"I hope that the Worldwide Bible Reading program this year will be widely observed, and that more Americans than ever will take advantage of it. Whatever translations or revisions the Bible may go through, it will always remain the same great Book bearing God's message to man."

Clean Up Made Easy

Joy of joys! Now they have eliminated the hard labor of cleaning brushes after the paint job is done.
The answer to this homeowner's headache comes in the form of a new paint that washes out of brushes with a simple rinse in soapy water.
Spatula spots, too, can be quickly washed away from floors and woodwork.
Unlike the old type paints that react to water, this one, called Wallude because of its tough, rubber-like finish, can be washed and scrubbed and resists many nasty stains such as grease, crayon, lipstick and even mercurochrome.

Amateurs have no trouble achieving a good-looking job for the rub-bery texture makes it easy to apply without leaving streaks or brush marks. Thus, again, American industry comes to the rescue to make an easier job of homemaking.

Helix High's P. T. A. held their Christmas Program in the dining hall of the cafeteria Thursday which featured the Green Robed Choir in a medley of Traditional Christmas Carols plus the Appalachian Christmas Carol "I Wonder as I Wander" and "Oh Holy Night." The Mixed Chorus, with a solo by Pat Parks, sang a traditional Indian Carol taken from the legend of the Sioux Tribe. Girls Ensemble will sing "O Divine Redeemer" by Gounod and "Glory to God" by Gaelic Folk Carol.

"Twelve the Night Before Christmas" (a Fred Waring arrangement) was presented by soloists Dede Whiting, Carol Seering, and Jerry Palmer. Carol Shaw and Jerry Palmer were narrators and Ernie Merk was Santa Claus. The Spanish classes of Mr. Villarreal, Mr. Davis, and Mr. Washington presented some of the best known carols in the Spanish version. A few were sung in the original setting by selected students of Mr. Davis' French class.

Mr. Robert Rue directed the singing. Commentator was Carole Bird. Accompanists: Valerie Loustalet at the piano and Marjorie Tripp at the organ.

He was last assigned as a disarming specialist in Military District of Washington, D. C. Dakins served in Korea from August 1951 to May 1952.

A 1947 graduate of Hoover High School, he attended Balboa University before entering the Army in March 1951.

He wears the Korean Service Ribbon. His father, John Dakins, is employed at Bekins Van and Storage.

your poem, I will go to my home and set them down in writing before they speed away again."

That night behind the altar-rail near a candle-covered Christmas tree, Father Josef Mohr, an orphan girl who tended the minister's home, and Franz Gruber sang that glorious Christmas carol for the first time to the parishioners of Saint Nicholas. Franz Gruber himself accompanied the little group on his guitar.

After the storm had abated, an organ-builder from Fugenein-Zellerthal came to Oberndorf to repair the broken organ. As he left the little village, he took a copy of the carol with him, and from his hands it was passed on to all mankind.

Since that Christmas night in 1818 it has become the world's best-loved Christmas carol. In every city and hamlet, in every country where loyal hearts join together to observe Christmas, the joyous words of "Silent Night, Holy Night" are sung.

parallel Imperial Ave. just south Broadway. The pair not only are just as readily visible as this year's entry, but are more healthier specimens also.

Speaking of the decorations, it is a safe bet that the same outfit that did the job this year won't have their contract renewed come next December.

One last note on Christmas: A near tragedy occurred a week ago tonight when Santa Claus, who was visiting the Lion's Club Christmas party, broke his glasses. Poor old guy, guess that this holiday strain is getting to be too much for the good gentleman after so many years.

And, in case that you don't get it any where else in this paper, our little column wishes you, each and all, a very merry Christmas.

FURNITURE FASHIONS

1953 model television receives are designed with the hostess in mind according to "Ed" Stewart, manager of McMahon's in Lemon Grove.

Here a 17 inch Motorola is being tuned to the channel over which the Rose Bowl Parade and game will come. Hostess is Helen Broiles of Lemon Grove.

Simple controls make tuning television even easier in newer models. Styles run the range from period and traditional, to modern.

More Lemon Grove hostesses plan parties around television than ever before. A boon to this type of social activity is McMahon's "No money down — years to pay" policy, according to Stewart.

HIGHLAND LADS AND LASSIES

By Robert Turnbull

Mr. Villarreal, Spanish teacher at Helix High, was recently elected to be President of the American Association of Spanish and Portuguese in the San Diego Chapter of the aforesaid club. Others elected were Elizabeth C. Stone, Vice-Presy; Jane Hubbard, Treasurer; and again re-elected was Margit W. MacRae, Secretary.

The Essential High School Battery Tests given to the 1952 senior class showed the following results: Math, 52 percentile; Science, 54 percentile; social studies, 54 percentile and English, 60 percentile. Seventy per cent of the class took the test, and these students were selected at random. The national average for the test is 50 percentile, and as principal said, "We'll need some more soon, too," he added. The Helix scored five points above the national average we are very proud, because this is an unusual achievement for a school only one year old.

By March or April Helix will have its "complete minimum plant" in operation, it was announced few days back. The school's modern 400-seat cafeteria will open after the Yule vacation, probably will charge 35c as the lunch price. Also scheduled to open after the holiday vacation is the Girls' Locker and Shower Building. Helix co-eds have thus far gone showerless, at school. But not till March or April will the plant be able to use the five classrooms in the two Industrial Arts Buildings.

Shop classes (metal; wood; auto; Radio; and electric) are at present using "borrowed" classrooms. "We aren't on double session, but our new classrooms are needed," John Warburton, assistant and principal said. "We'll need some more soon, too," he added. The atre.

2-10 Club Has Buffet At Codinas

On Thursday, December 18, the home of Mr. and Mrs. Anthony Codina at 2337 Cypress Avenue was the setting for the traditional Pre-Christmas party of the 2-10 Club. Around 8:30 p. m. a buffet dinner was served after which members of the club participated in gift exchanging with their secret pals and husbands. Much hilarity reigned as the men found that Santa Claus had a sense of humor and brought them gifts of a ludicrous nature. Games were played afterwards. It was an occasion to be long remembered.

Postponed for the future are such "luxury" facilities as an indoor gymnasium, a swimming pool, and an auditorium. At present the school enrollment is 1400.

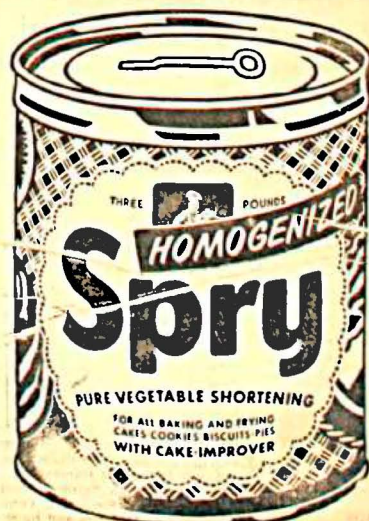

In the true friendly spirit that dominates the whole world at this time, we extend our wishes for a delightfully happy Christmas and a most prosperous
New Year.

Food Sense—Not Nonsense

Is it hard for you to distinguish between food sense and nonsense? Are the claims and counter claims of nostrum peddlers confusing you? Are the foodist attacks on our basic foods increasing your faith in the claims of the supplement promoter?

SEVEN BASIC FOOD GROUPS

We have passed through the era of exaggerated claims for roughage; the era of carbohydrate fears and the era which saw the word vitamin tossed around with little regard for its actual meaning. Today promoters are taking over the protein story and are telling it in a pseudo scientific way with little regard for fact or food sense. According to some of these promoters, protein supplements promise a long life and a merry one.

Protein is important to the diet. The word itself is from the Greek—meaning to take first place. Proteins, found in all body tissues, are made up of various amino acids. These serve as the building blocks for the manufacture of body tissues. Some of these building blocks can be manufactured in the body but some of them must be obtained from the food we eat. A supply of essential building blocks is needed day in and day out. Those that we eat over and above our needs are burned by the body to supply energy. In this way they take over some of the functions of more economical carbohydrates and fats.

Selection from each of the basic seven food groups everyday will assure the needed proteins as it will the other food requirements. Two of the basic food groups—the meat, poultry, fish and eggs—and the milk and milk products—are known as the protein food groups because of their high content of excellent quality protein. These foods furnish all the essential building blocks, but the quantities of the essential building blocks also furnish protein, but the quantities of the essential building blocks also furnish protein, but the quantities of the essential building blocks also furnish protein.

The use of bread and other cereal products in a diet which also includes meat, milk or eggs will help put the cereal proteins to use. This is because the body uses the proteins from meat, milk or eggs to produce the enzymes which are necessary for the body to use the cereal proteins.

One average serving of meat will furnish 20 to 30% of the daily protein requirement of the average man or 25 to 40% of the daily requirement for the average woman. One glass of milk will furnish about 10% of the requirement of protein for man and about 15% of the requirement of the average woman.

In milk and its products, such as cheese, nature has given us the happy combination of quality protein and a liberal supply of calcium. Calcium is needed for good bone structure and buoyant health. One glass of milk furnishes about 1/3 of the day's need for this mineral. A daily diet based on foods of the basic seven is food sense protein-wise.

Daily servings of meat, fish and eggs and milk and milk products along with proteins found in enriched bread and other foods, will furnish more of this essential food than your body requires.

Need we fall for the protein supplement promotion?

Odd Bodkin Sex:

I MUST CONFESS to ye the cause of the great drought this summer. Some 'uns around here blame it on Squire Gladmoney Deblidde's television machine drawin' all the electric out of the clouds. 'Tweren't that at all.

And 'tweren't the low plate of morals nor the cussedness of the party in power—although them things hev been known to bring some powerfully dry weather. If it were the Demycrats, we'd had drought for 20 years, and I knows we've had some gully washers in them years. A fellow's got to make up his mind which he wants to blame the Demycrats for—food or drought, not both.

As for morals, it's rained several times since Aunt Effie Toadpooter threw away her pipe and picked up cigarettes, besides painting her toenails.

And no matter what Parson Peters sex, 'tweren't folks not payin' the preacher that brought the parched spell. We paid him enough for goods received, and some of his sermons were as dry as the weather.

'Tweren't cause it don't rain nights in July, as Aunt Effie sex, or on account of the atom bomb out there in Nevada. No sir!

I'm the one who brought on that drought—'twas wife-beatin' that done it. Seems that warm weather always makes Belle, my wife, lazy. On a warm June day, I can't get her started in the corn patch until after sun-up. This summer, what with the beetles and the blight, I started beatin' her.

We ain't had a drop of rain since I just laid a hoe handle on her. I want to tell my neighbors right now I'm sorry. But wife beatin' is alius good for a long drought. And Belle needs a few blows along about dandelion greens time every year.

Mebbe it's 'breakin' good hoe handles that causes the drought, but I think it's the cussedness of Belle.

AUTO INSURANCE RATES HIKED BY APATHY - HIGHER LOSSES

CNPA News Service

Unresponsible jurors and increasingly skillful claims attorneys are two reasons most liability insurance may cost you more next year, it was reported today.

Insurance experts appearing at civic and service organizations throughout California were busy this month satisfying the public's growing concern over increased insurance rates paid by motorists and municipalities.

In a round-up of the most significant speeches presented, the speakers had this to say: "Your automobile insurance rates for next year are determined by this year's losses. When someone tells you how he 'beat' the insurance company, he is telling you that he stole some of your money. If you saw a thief break a window, you'd create a small riot — yet you sit and smile while 'dear old Charlie' tells you how he stole from you and cheated an insurance company. It doesn't make sense," (Mr. John Adair, Special Insurance Agent, before the Woodland Hills Rotary Club and the Oxnard Chamber of Commerce.)

"A skillful group of attorneys have made it their business to inform and educate an ever-widening membership of the Bar in the use of dramatics in the presentation of personal injury cases. This type of presentation stimulates juries into returning verdicts which only a few years ago would have been considered shockingly excessive. It is felt that in many cases such dramatic presentations have stimulated juries to return verdicts for unconscionable amounts and to return such verdicts without regard to legal liability," (Mr. J. T. Blalock, Executive Vice-President Pacific Indemnity Company, before the 54th Annual Conference of The League of California Cities at San Diego.)

"There is one phase to the excessive verdict issue and high cost per accident that I trust will be given particular consideration. I refer to the relationship that attorneys' services have to awards and claim settlements. Is the usual 33-1/3 to 50% contingency arrangement equitable and can it be defended? I remind you that legal contingency fees are included in jury awards and become part of the loss cost which goes into the makeup of the premium charged by insurance companies. That labor is worthy of its hire is a well recognized axiom in our private enterprise system. But I submit that contingency arrangements might well be the subject of study and research, especially when awards and settlements exceed a reasonable minimum," (Mr. James F. Crafts, President, Fireman's Fund Insurance Company, before the 75th Annual Meeting, American Bar Association at San Francisco.)

"There have been abuses arising from the misconception that insurance companies are wealthy corporations that can well afford to pay excessive claims. That is short sighted and completely unreasonable. Resources of an insurance company are provided by its policy holders augmented in some cases by stock holders investment to provide an added element of financial security," (Mr. R. L. Inglis, President, Founders' Insurance Company, before Southern California Industrial Insurance Committee of the California State Chamber of Commerce, Los Angeles.)

Citizenship Club Members Honored

Golden Avenue students held an assembly in the patio of the school last Tuesday to honor boys and girls of the Citizenship Club. Membership cards signed by the principal, each bearing the student's picture, were presented to students in the club. A special section of seats near the stage was set aside for the people being honored.

The assembly was conducted by Sharon Lane, student body president. Student body officers were introduced to the audience. A short program was presented. Gary Martindale played his electric steel guitar; Tommy Beebe pantomimed a college boy ordering and eating his cafeteria lunch; and Barbara Lesko did a Hawaiian dance.

Golden Avenue School's Citizenship Club has become more exclusive this year because it accepts as members only twenty percent of the pupils enrolled in each class. To be eligible for membership, a student must have no grade on his report card below an "S". From the group of eligible pupils in each class the teacher and class members choose the really outstanding citizens for membership in the Citizenship Club.

Monterey Girl Scout Leaders Meet

Troop No. 375, second grade, Mrs. Phillip Titmus, Leader, Mrs. E. M. Castel, Co-leader, Mrs. Frank Wylie, Mrs. R. F. Foster and Mrs. Robert Buckner, Committee Mothers. Third Grade Troop No. 552 had Mrs. John Craig, Co-leader and Committee Mothers Mrs. Mary Whildin and Mrs. George Munn. Fourth Grade Troop No. 334, Mrs. John Lewis, Leader, Mrs. Gordon Siebert, Co-leader, were invested. The Fifth Grade had one new adult member, Mrs. Stanley Peak. Refreshments were served at this Christmas Meeting.

Brownies Have Christmas Party

Troop No. 552 of the Monterey Heights Brownies had their Christmas party at the home of Mrs. Harold Whildin, 8215 Alton, on evening of December 19th.

The girls had a gift exchange, Patricia Mopps was in charge. Charlene Craig, Sue Gregory and Carol Whildin did the serving for the party.

The Troop's Sponsors are Dr. Whildin and Mr. M. Bailey. They received a Scout Pin from the girls of the troop.

Mr. Richard Hicks took colored movies of the highlights of the party. Genevieve Reeder played the piano for the singing of traditional Christmas Carols.

Christmas Angel Wings

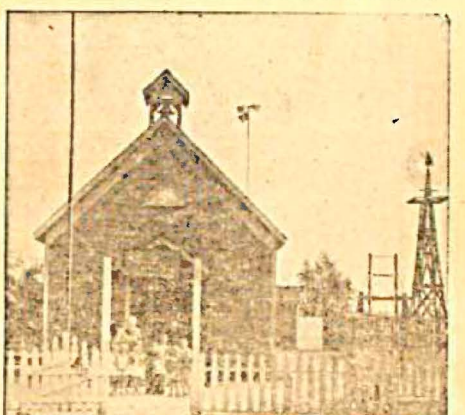

Christmas is the cozy season and an especially good Christmas cookie is Angel Wings. This rich oatmeal cookie has a delicate crispness and a flavor that is "oh so good." They're pretty to serve too, with their large edges and decoration of nuts, citron and candied fruit. Try Angel Wings with a frosty fruit punch for elegant holiday entertaining.

Angel Wings
Makes 4 dozen cookies

|-------------------------------|--|
| 1/2 cup sifted enriched flour | 1 teaspoon vanilla |
| 1/2 cup sugar | 1/2 teaspoon almond extract (optional) |
| 1/2 teaspoon salt | 1 cup quick rolled oats, uncooked |
| 1 cup shortening, soft | |
| 2 eggs | |

Citron, candied cherries and chopped nuts

Sift together flour, sugar and salt into bowl. Add shortening, eggs and flavorings. Beat until smooth, about 2 minutes. Fold in rolled oats. Drop from a teaspoon onto greased cookie sheet, allowing about 2 inches between cookies. Flatten with a knife dipped in cold water. Decorate with pieces of citron, candied cherries or nuts. Bake in a moderate oven (375°F.) 10 to 12 minutes until cookies are golden brown around the edges. Remove from cookie sheet immediately.

THIS LITTLE RED SCHOOL HOUSE, erected in 1879, was where some of our present-day pioneers got their first schooling. This school at Abilene, Kansas, on the vast American Prairie, was a far cry from our great school system of today... but is where many first learned their "A B C's."

New explorers reported this region a sandy waste, but this was discovered false after successive waves of migration had moved west. The myth of the "Great American Desert" was exploded. Many a fleet of "prairie schooners" crossed Kansas en route to Utah and California.

Coronado led the first Europeans (Spaniards) into what is now Kansas. A few lucky lady or lassies rode a horse or pony, usually bareback or with a quilt in lieu of a saddle. Often two or three kids on the same pony. The school "marm" rode a side saddle if boarding too far to walk.

The families were a rugged lot. Horses and wagons were too busy with farm work to be spared to take children to school.

Walter Knott's Berry Farm bought the school, the original blackboards, desks, slates and furnishings. It has been remodeled with an old windmill to present an authentic picture of the area, collection of McGuffey's Readers, maps and calendars of the times and is another Ghost provided for posterity. A Ghost that will live again for the entertainment and pleasure of visitors, young and old.

Miss Nina Duden, formerly of Kansas and for many years teacher in California schools, plays school teacher while sentiment brings many visitors from Kansas and the wide open spaces. Incidentally, Miss Duden is actually teaching the grandchildren of Walter and Cordelia Knott... third generation of the founders of Knott's Berry Farm and Ghost Town. Here in the little red school house of pioneer days the third generation of the Knott family are learning their ABC's.

Luckel Support Luckel Support

Crossing partisan lines, the Young Democrats are supporting GOP Assemblyman Luckel in his proposal to force open all meetings of public bodies in the State.

Sumner Alpert, of 7537 Cuyamaca Ave., Lemon Grove, who is secretary of the group, quoted its president, Dr. Joseph Farber, as saying that "There has been too much tendency lately to secrecy on the part of official bodies, and we feel these secret meetings threaten the right of individuals to know what is going on in their government."

"It makes no difference to us which party Luckel belongs to," Alpert asserted, "as a group we intend to support any measure which we feel is in the common interest."
